Margin trading involves the potential for profit as well as the risk of loss. The leveraged nature of margin trading means that any movement will have a proportional effect on your investment. This may vastly exceed the amount of money you commit to any trade or transaction. Movements in prices in financial products are influenced by a wide range of factors, many of which are unpredictable. Mondeum Capital (UK) Limited cannot guarantee a maximum loss that you may suffer.

Mondeum Capital (UK) Limited is not responsible for any losses incurred in connection to any decision made, action or inaction taken by any party in reliance upon the information provided verbally or via the Internet, or any delays, inaccuracies, errors in, or omissions of information. There are risks associated with utilizing an Internet-based trading system. These include but are not limited to the failure of hardware, software, internet connection and any force majeure (e.g. extraordinary weather condition or other act of God; war; labour dispute; communications or power failure, etc).

Since Mondeum Capital (UK) Limited does not control signal power, its reception or routing via the Internet, configuration of your equipment or reliability of its connection, therefore we cannot be responsible for communication failures, or distortions or delays when trading via the Internet. We will attempt to minimize the possibility of system failure. Please contact our customer service desk if you have any questions.
